The Mt. San Antonio College Catalog contains information regarding the College library and related support services. This document is updated annually for currency and correctness.

All library materials are accessible to individuals with disabilities. Upon request, library materials will be provided in alternate formats (Braille, e-test, tactile graphics, audio recording closed-captioned, or enlargements). To the extent possible, the alternate format shall be in the mode of communication that is preferred by the individual and shall be produced in a timely manner. Requests for alternate media should be directed to the librarian in charge.
