A speaker uses the (not a, Ø, or some) when the speaker and the listener are thinking about the same specific person(s) or thing(s).

In (s): The speaker and the listener are thinking about the same specific dog. The listener knows which dog the speaker is talking about: the dog that they own, the dog that they feed every day. There is only one dog that the speaker could possibly be talking about.

In (t): A speaker uses the when s/he mentions a noun the second time.

First mention:

I had a banana...

Second mention:

I gave the banana...

In the second mention, the listener now knows which banana the speaker is talking about: the banana the speaker had (not the banana John had, not the banana in the bowl).
